

Don't go out alone at night my dear (not even to go to the loo)

Chorus:

*Don't go out alone at night my dear
Not even to go to the loo
There are all kinds of nasties just waiting to appear So going it alone is a foolish thing to do You may think you're invincible
"It could never ever happen to me"
But if you are not careful and bring some well armed friends You're sure to come a-cropper, you'll see*

*The dire squirrel's the forester's bane
It can flatten a tree in one leap It's squirrelled away a fortune, they say
And its nuts are the size of a sheep*

Chorus

*The monstrous midges that live in the marsh
Chew chunks out of every hide It's lucky they only come out when its wet
So... that's only on days with a y*

*The Bregasland cow is a short-legged beast
The locals regard it with fear It'll hide underwater and upturn your boat
And take a big bite out your rear!*

Chorus

*The Mandowla's neither a bear nor an owl
And lays waste to Tower March farms
But nothing compares to how wasted you'll be*

If ye' visit the Mandowla's Arms

*In long-ago times, in the Meademarch, they say
Lived unicorns, who all did adore They'd rest down their horn in a young virgin's lap-Like the virgins, alas, they're no more.*

Chorus

*An old Ramsbruck ewe has a double-edged tongue
As sweet as a lamb when content Yet sour and bitter its bleating when scorned - Avoid it when it needs to vent!*
