

Green George

Every year a ritual to bring the Spring involves dancing around a willow tree. A yeoman is garlanded with willow leaves and becomes "Green George". He gets dunked in the river to ensure the water blesses the crops!

Lyrics on next page.

by Kit Barbourne and Gerald Merrowvale

Chorus: G D G

Bind wi - llow leaves a - bout him, sing - ing, "Gar - lan - ded - Green

D G D

George" All your good - ly gifts a - bring - ing, "Gar - lan - ded - Green

A D E A

George" Bow down to him and call him king, go to the ri - ver fling him in

G D A D

and let the rites of Spring be - gin, with Gar - lan - ded - Green George!

Verse:

1 Dance a - bout the will - ow tree, a leaf for you, a
Lass with child, spread on the ground, your mo - ther's gar - ments

E A G D

leaf for me and all that's left of leaves shall be for all a round, "If they catch leaves, your child is sound," says

A 2D A D

Gar - lan - ded - Green George Gar - lan - ded - Green George