

The Snow in the Stubble

A desolate song of Winter and the farming landscape.

Notes: This works well with a drone (C and G) beneath it. Some chords are suggested (rippling arpeggios are good).

1) The snow in the stubble, the tracks of a hare, the
 2) snow in the stubble, the path by the bridge, The marks of a field-mouse, the crow's path through - air, the spraint of a fox at the edge of the ridge, the rime on the oak branch, the frost on a stone: This is the way, aut-umn shed antler, the pale, bleached bone: This is the way,

1. F though I walk it a-lone. The lone. 3) The though I walk it a - lone. lone.

2. F dying and faltering

C+Gdrone
 snow in the stubble, the snow in the brake, the snow that de- ceives and co-vers a lake This way of be-wild-er-ment, heart o-ver unaccompanied voice thrown This is the way though I walk it a-lone ppp