

Turn the Circle

1. Earth and dark - holds seed and root To the sun rise
 2. Seeds that in - the Spring were sown In the au - tumn
 3. Fields that grow - with bar - ley high In their turn must
 4. Long days full - of warmth and light All must end with 5. Wound - ed, wear - y, sick and sore Lay down now to

1. Earth and dark - holds
 2. Seeds that in - the
 3. Fields that grow - with 4. Long days full - of
 5. Wound - ed, wear - y, leaf and shoot Rest shall fo - llow all your toil are full grown Chil - dren grow - to grooms and brides fa - llow lie Wi - cker men - to ash - es burn gen - tle night Here's the wound - no art can heal rise no more To the land - that gave you birth seed and root To the sun rise leaf and shoot Spring were sown In the au - tumn are full grown bar - ley high In their turn must fa - llow lie warmth and light All must end with gen - tle night sick and sore Lay down now to rise no more

Turn the cir - cle, turn the soil.
 Turn the cir - cle, turn the tides.
 Turn the cir - cle, turn the sun
 Turn the cir - cle, turn the wheel.
 Turn the cir - cle, turn the earth.

Rest shall fo - llow all your toil Turn the cir - cle, turn the soil.
 Chil - dren grow - to grooms and brides Turn the cir - cle, turn the tides.
 Wi - cker men - to ash - es burn Turn the cir - cle, turn the sun.
 Here's the wound - no art can heal Turn the cir - cle, turn the wheel.
 To the land - that gave you birth Turn the cir - cle, turn the earth.

